

Monthly HEADLINES

FEBRUARY 2021

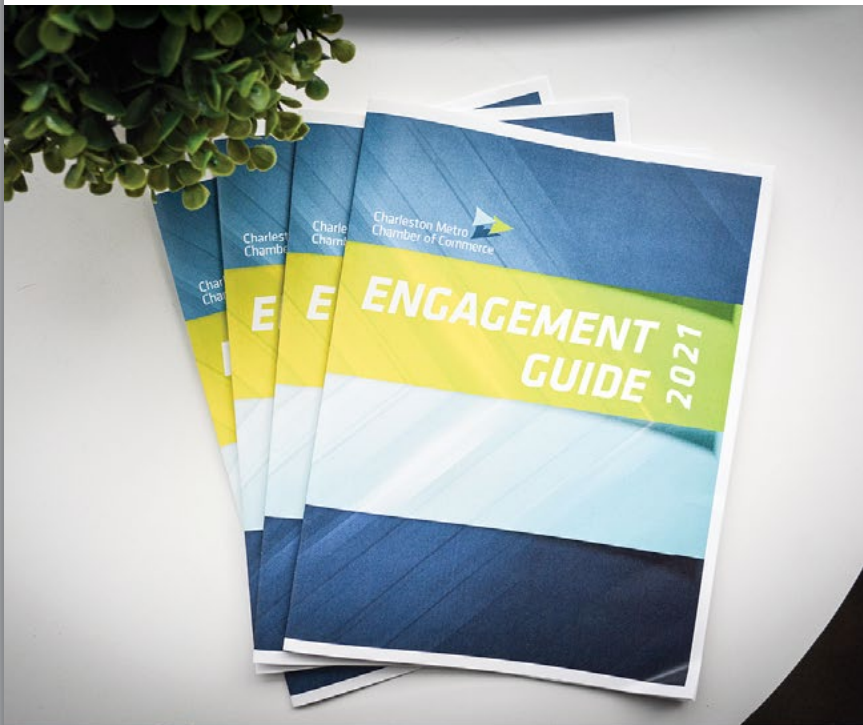

FOUCHÉ SHEPPARD INSPIRES

In honor of Black History Month, we sat down with Fouché Sheppard, a native Gullah and award-winning poet, storyteller and inspirational speaker, to hear her story and learn how she brings awareness to the Gullah culture in the lowcountry, state and nation.

LEARN MORE ABOUT HER STORY

1

NEW WAYS TO CONNECT

As a Chamber member, there are a variety of ways to plug in. We're excited to announce our newest connection opportunity, the Chamber Members Facebook group! In addition to connecting with fellow members, learn more ways you can engage with the Chamber through our Membership Engagement Guide.

FIND WAYS TO ENGAGE

2

LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES FOR 2021

Our 2021 Legislative Agenda identifies the set of goals, based on the business community's top priorities, that the Chamber's Senior Director of Legislative Relations, George Ramsey, will work to achieve during the 2021 legislative session.

LEARN MORE

3